On boarding of National Multi-Commodity Exchange of India Limited (NMCE)

This has reference to National Multi-Commodity Exchange of India Limited (NMCE) circular no NMCE/2018-19/0026 dated July 18, 2018 regarding “Enrollment of CCRL Repository for Exchange settlement” regarding mandatory settlement using eNWR for contracts expiring on 15th July 2018 onwards.

With reference to the above, all its Members and Participants are hereby informed that Exchange settlement interface with CCRL has been completed and the process of creation of Electronic Negotiable Warehouse Receipts (eNWR) for delivery towards settlement in NMCE has started in CCRL system.

Repository Participants (RPs) of CCRL are informed that NMCE has decided to use repository platform for settlement of delivery obligations through eNWR arising out of a trade/ deal in commodity derivatives contracts on its platform for the contracts expiring henceforth.

CCRL hereby informs that all Clients and Depositors of NMCE desirous of delivering and receiving the commodities on NMCE would have to open a Client Account with CCRL and further map their Repository Account with the Unique Client Code (UCC) allocated to them by their Trading Members.

It is further clarified that,

- 1) All the fresh deposits in Warehouse intended for delivery on NMCE platform must be in the form of eNWR only.
- 2) All Clearing Members of NMCE are requested to get onboarded on CCRL Repository platform. They should contact NMCE or CCRL for further details. The Contact details of NMCE Kochi Office and CCRL officials are as below:

- 3) The Exchange would be accepting eNWR of the repository for the final settlement of the contracts expiring henceforth.
  - 4) Such Depositors/Clients shall approach Repository Participants (RPs) of CCRL for opening Client Account.
  - 5) The depositors still holding the Physical Warehouse Receipts may immediately open a demat account with a Repository Participant and get their Physical Warehouse Receipts (WHR) converted into eNWR.
  - 6) Clients should submit existing paper Negotiable Warehouse Receipts in original to the respective warehouse along with requisition form for conversion in eNWR (Conversion Request Form is available under download section on CCRL website). The paper Negotiable Warehouse Receipt will be cancelled and in lieu of the same, eNWR will be issued by the warehouse which can be delivered on NMCE.
  - 7) The buyers intending to take delivery in the contracts expiring in August 2018 and thereafter may immediately open the repository account for receiving the deliveries in electronic format with CCRL.
  - 8) For further information on opening Client Repository Account, please refer to the download section on our website at <http://www.ccrl.co.in> → Downloads → Forms and Formats → Account Opening Form (Individual and Non-individual).

Participants on the Repository platform are advised to take note of the above and ensure compliance with the same.
